Table of Contents

Introduction .................................................. 11

I. SOCIAL CONFLICTS AND TRANSITION TO JUSTICE

A Critical Note on (Un)conditionality
Josue Pereira da Silva ........................................ 23

When Local Participatory Budgeting Turns into a Participatory System. Challenges of Expanding a Local Democratic Experience
Emil A. Sobottka, Danilo R. Streck ......................... 47

II. DISPUTES ON MORAL, LEGAL AND SECULAR DISCOURSES

On the Moral Distinction Between Morality and Moralism
Marco Antonio Azevedo .................................... 75
Judicial Procedure and Argumentation: How Discursive is the Legal Discourse?
André L. S. Coelho ......................................................... 95

Democracy and Secularism: Remarks on an Ongoing Dispute
Luiz Bernardo L. Araujo .................................................... 113

III.
TENSE RELATIONS BETWEEN LEGAL AND POLITICAL JUSTICE

The Concept of Justice: How Fundamental is it in Ethics and Political Philosophy?
Christoph Horn ............................................................... 125

Identity and Modernity: On the Politicization of the Subject
Fabricio Pontin .............................................................. 145

Self-Authored Human Rights as Claim to Universality
Petr Agha ................................................................. 171

The Human Rights Between Morals and Politics: On Jürgen Habermas’s Cosmopolitanism
Luiz Repa ................................................................. 191

IV.
HISTORICAL CONTENTIONS ON JUSTICE

Justice and Liberty in Hegel
Thadeu Weber ............................................................. 211

Filipe Campello ........................................................... 231

John Stuart Mill on Justice and Self-Development
Gustavo Hessmann Dalaqua .............................................. 245
V.
PHENOMENOLOGICAL AND DEONTOLOGICAL DEFICITS OF JUSTICE

Reflective Equilibrium and Normative Reconstruction: Recasting the Phenomenological Deficit of Critical Theory
Nythamar de Oliveira ............................................... 261

Our Deontological-Utilitarian Minds
Cinara Nahra .......................................................... 281

Conflicts Between Basic Rights and Balancing: Why Should Judges Abandon the Deontological Stance?
Marina Velasco ....................................................... 301

VI.
JUSTICE IN WORLD CONFLICTS AND CYBERWAR

Towards Justice in the World War. Moral, Political, and Legal Disputes
Marek Hrubec .......................................................... 313

The Supreme Emergency. On the Normative Dilemmas in Just War
Josef Velek ............................................................... 333

Justice in Cyberwar
Klaus-Gerd Giesen .................................................... 365

Cyberwar, Political Realism, and the World State
Marcelo de Araujo ..................................................... 387

Bibliography ............................................................ 397
List of Contributors .................................................. 427
Index ....................................................................... 429